

Short Biography – Peter Gjørtler

Peter Gjørtler is director of Lexnet European Information in Riga, Latvia. He is a qualified lawyer with more than 30 years of experience in private practice, public administration, judicial service and universities, including work as advokat and of counsel for Grayston & Company in Bruxelles, Belgium.

He has previously worked as public prosecutor, as High Court judge and legal advisor for the President and Advocate General of the Court of Justice of the European Union, and as director of International Development at Riga Graduate School of Law in Latvia. He teaches at universities and provides assistance for government agencies in countries seeking cooperation with the European Union.

His current research interests concern public procurement and the development of judicial reasoning. His practice areas include European Union law, public and private international law, with focus on competition law, criminal law, environmental protection, human rights, intellectual property, judicial procedure and reform, public procurement and state aid law, as well as public administration and project management. His outside interests include military history and classical music.

Recent publications include:

- Procedure and Practice of the Court of Justice in the field of Public Procurement, chapter in Catherine Barnard, Adam Lazowski & Daniel Sarmiento: Pursuit of Legal Harmony in a Turbulent Europe, Hart Publishing, 2024
- Export Controls and Economic Sanctions in the European Union, chapter with John Grayston in Kay Georgi: Handbook of Export Controls and Economic Sanctions, American Bar Association, 2023
- Regional guidelines for effective judicial E-learning in SEE, with Bård Tuseh, Regional Cooperation Council in South-Eastern Europe, 2022
- Diversity and Judicial Independence in Denmark, chapter in Elizabeth Gibson-Morgan: Fighting for Justice - Common Law and Civil Law Judges - Threats and Challenges Civil and Common Law Countries, University of Wales Press, 2021
- National Enforcement of Policies against Illicit Trade in Tobacco Products in Latvia, chapter with Laura Grava in John A.E. Vervaele and Stanislaw Tosza: Combatting Illicit Trade in Tobacco Products, Springer, 2021
- Judicial Remedies and the European Data Protection Board, study for the European Institute of Public Administration, 2019
- Prosecution and Performance in Denmark, contribution to Comparative legal analysis on best European practices in measuring the performance of the public prosecutors, Center for Legal Research and Analysis, 2018
- The application of good faith in enforcing EU public procurement, contribution to Public Procurement - Global Revolution VIII, Public Procurement Research Group, University of Nottingham, 2017
- Democratic Legitimacy and the Court of Justice of the European Union, chapter in Beatriz Pérez de las Heras: Building a European Demos - Democratic legitimacy in the post-Lisbon European Union and its impact on global governance, Palgrave Macmillan, 2017